A Cubitt Town child is Ready, Respectful and Safe

 Curiosity	 Collaborate	 Care	 Challenge	 Communicate	 Commitment
We are curious about what is in our surroundings so we can keep safe We ask questions, thinking about what we already know We are inquisitive and open-minded We take an interest in a different points of view	We take turns to keep things fair We actively respond to others during team work We work in effective teams to achieve outcomes We set an example to others in the way that we play together (UN Article 31) We win as a team and lose gracefully	We look after each other through the good times and the bad We help each other when we're unsure or struggling We are kind with our words and actions We stand up for each other especially in times of injustice	Even when things are hard we try again When we finish our work, we ask for a new challenge We set high expectations for ourselves and others We love to learn from our mistakes	We listen to others when they are talking When value different opinions and when we disagree - we disagree politely We ensure that all voices are heard and that our conversations are inclusive (UN Article 12)	We come to school on time every day wearing the correct uniform (UN Article 28) We concentrate and give our very best to every activity We do our homework and read every day We produce high quality work showing we are fully devoted to our learning (UN Article 29) We are focused on making good choices and following instructions