Dear Miss Bruce

I am writing to you as I am aware about my peers safety towards apps such as Tiktok,snapchat and instagram.Around the world people are different and can be bad mannered and dishonest so parents have loads more on their to do list. Children will be influenced and will be rude, get complaints and be banned from the creators of the app/game which might upset them.

My point is,the modern media is not healthy for our well-being. Everyday people are more connected to their phones than family and become more and more ignorant.My opinion is the specific apps are not allowed for 10 years and over. Did you know people use their phones up to 28 times a day. Most parents might agree as their children do not do what their told to. This could also ruin routines like sleep which will cause a dramatic effect to the child.My evidence to this is there are different people and different personalities which will teach kids badly.Surely you understand as parents limit the time of network usage and some ban them from it.

Another reason why the media should not be allowed is there are threats about harm and bullying can happen. Many frauds can be committed to get in bank accounts and Hackers can take away all the things you own some can get in to your private lives. People lie about age,main country and city. An important thing is that stalking can take place in these type of scenes. Now that you know these severe things can happen can you agree now? Parents can be overprotective and this a good and natural thing to feel as kidnappings are common to happen.

Cyber bullying is hard to handle as threats to hurt or harm the witness come through and makes them scared and uncontrollably uncomfortable which will definitely scare children. It will cause anxiety.people will follow on and influence others to be unkind and toxic and will lead kids trying to be cool and will bully at school. Cyber bullying can be impossible to notice especially media's such as Tiktok,Snapchat, Instagram and maybe Twitter aswell. Definitely you should agree now as it is serious and could get out of hand. Most children think being unmannered back will solve the problem but of course it is wrong. Kids will keep it a secret as they think friends and family will not take it seriously and will react not the way the child wanted them to react.

Thank you for your time

Yours sincerely, Farhan
